APPLICATION TO STAY PROCEEDINGS AND REQUEST FOR ORDER REQUIRING SPECIAL REPORT AND BRIEF IN SUPPORT

COME NOW Defendants Cincotta and Knutson, by and through Assistant Attorney General Kari Y. Hawkins, and request this Court to stay the proceedings in the above styled matter and order the Oklahoma Department of Corrections (“ODOC”) to submit a Martinez report, also known as a Special Report, pursuant to Martinez v. Aaron, 570 F.2d 317 (10th Cir. 1978). In support of this request, Defendants offer this brief in support, as set forth below.

BRIEF IN SUPPORT

In Martinez v. Aaron, 570 F.2d 317, 319 (10th Cir. 1978), the Tenth Circuit approved the practice of a court-authorized investigation and report conducted by corrections officials “to undertake a review of the subject matter of the Complaint” in order to provide the court with additional information for the processing of the prisoner's claim. The Martinez Court deemed the investigation and report "to be not only proper but necessary" to fully consider the issues brought before the court. Id. The Tenth Circuit ultimately held that the district court properly dismissed the Martinez plaintiff's claim as being frivolous under 28 U.S.C. §1915 after ordering and reviewing such a report. Id.

The Martinez procedure has been regularly upheld and recommended. See, Johnson v. Parke, 642 F.2d 377, 378 (10th Cir. 1981); Robinson v. Benton, 579 F.2d 70 (10th Cir. 1978); Martinez v. Chavez, 574 F.2d 1043 (10th Cir. 1973) (review of county jail conditions); Wiggins v. New Mexico State Supreme Court Clerk, 664 F.2d 812, 817 (10th Cir. 1981): ("we suggest that the procedures, order and practice expressly approved by this Court in Martinez v. Aaron, [citation omitted] may be applicable").

This Court would similarly benefit from a Special Report that addresses the facts of the incidents alleged in Plaintiff Complaint and ODOC policies relevant thereto. Specifically, as a threshold matter, the Special Report would include all grievance records, thereby aiding the Court in its determination of whether Plaintiff exhausted administrative remedies prior to commencement of suit, as required by law. The Special Report would also contain all ODOC policies, administrative/facility records, and inmate-specific documentation relevant to Plaintiff's claims.

The Tenth Circuit has expressly approved the use of Martinez Reports for the purpose of developing a record for determining "which facts alleged in the Complaint were relevant, accurate, and subject to bona fide dispute." Chavez, 574 F.2d at 1046. See also Phillips v. Carey, 638 F.2d 207, 208 (10th Cir. 1981), which noted that the facts of the incidents complained of by plaintiff inmates are often not before the Court in any sufficient degree, thus necessitating a Martinez Report. "The purpose of the Martinez report is to identify and clarify the issues plaintiff raises in his complaint." Gutierrez v. Torres, 416 F. App'x 764, 766 n. 4 (10th Cir. 2011) (unpublished opinion) (citing Hall v. Bellmon, 935 F.2d 1106, 1112 (10th Cir. 1991). The Martinez report assists in "develop[ing] a record sufficient to ascertain whether there are any factual or legal bases" for the alleged claims. Breedlove v. Costner, 405 F. App'x 338, 343 (10th Cir. 2010) (unpublished opinion) (citing Hall, 935 F.2d at 1109).

For the foregoing reasons, the Defendants urge this Court to issue an Order staying proceedings against them herein for at least sixty (60) days and requiring the Oklahoma Department of Corrections to submit a Special Report pursuant to the authority set forth above.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Kari Y. Hawkins
